Employment opportunities in law enforcement, fire protection, and corrections depend on the availability of funding from state and local governments as well as on the ongoing replacement of workers who retire or leave their jobs. – Mass Career Information System

WHERE THE MONEY IS
View the latest income levels for various law enforcement careers
mwcc.emsicc.com

477,000 officers are employed at local departments only 58,000 are women—that’s only 1 in 8 or 12%

EDUCATION & CAREER

Employment opportunities in law enforcement, fire protection, and corrections depend on the availability of funding from state and local governments as well as on the ongoing replacement of workers who retire or leave their jobs. – Mass Career Information System

Sources:
• www.newenglandcollegeonline.com/resources/criminal-justice/infographic-why-women-are-needed-in-law-enforcement/

For questions about furthering your education after MWCC:
Contact Femi Stoltz at fstoltz@mwcc.mass.edu or Amanda Meyer at ameyer1@mwcc.mass.edu