A man loses his identity while living under a repressive regime. In a story based on George Orwell’s classic novel, Winston Smith (John Hurt) is a government employee whose job involves the rewriting of history in a manner that casts his fictional country’s leaders in a charitable light. His trysts with Julia (Suzanna Hamilton) provide his only measure of enjoyment, but lawmakers frown on the relationship -- and in this closely monitored society, there is no escape from Big Brother.

Nomination papers to run for a seat on the Student Government Association (SGA) available in the Student Life Office, at the SGA booth or on-line at <https://iconnect.mwcc.edu>). Completed nomination papers must be submitted to the Student Life office by Wed., March 27th at 5pm.
