D. CHAIRMAN’S REPORT – Chairman Antonioni
- Chairman Antonioni thanked everyone for attending the meeting. He deferred his time to the president for his report

E. PRESIDENT’S REPORT – President Vander Hooven
- The president welcomed everyone to the meeting
- Welcomed Heather Layton of Institutional Grants Office present today to assist if there are any questions concerning the Strategic Plan
- The president was at a meeting recently where there was no mention of “COVID” until the very end of the meeting except to say that is was not mentioned. We are hopeful this is nearing the end. May 20th is the day that we will go “mask optional” on campus. This is the last day of the semester.
- Jim introduced our new Chief Diversity Executive, Stephanie Williams. Stephanie thanked everyone and gave a brief update on her work at the college thus far.
- We had an Open House on Saturday, April 9th. It was so well attended that it had to be moved to the theatre
- We are in the process of planning our end of year events. Our commencement will take place in person this year with only individuals who have speaking roles seated on the platform. There will be a VIP section for Trustees, Foundation Board members, legislators, etc.
- We received a new 10-year lease in at the Leominster campus. There will be extensive renovations to that building starting mid-May though end of calendar year.
- Vice President of Finance and Administration, Sandra Quaye, updated the board on the Linus Allain building. We have signed a P & S agreement and will close at end of May. We have done our due diligence with the attorney and the Foundation. We will now be able to utilize the warehouse at the Leominster campus during renovations/redesign. VP Quaye also updated the board on the Devens campus. VP Duggan and his group have identified the space in order to reduce our footprint and rental cost. The Sims Lab will be moved to the Gardner campus.
- Accolades to two of our faculty members, Lara Dowland and Nick Cochran who visited the California Community College System as part of the Faculty Academy initiated by former VP of Academic and Student Affairs, Paul Hernandez. This program shares best practices on meeting the needs of students.
- November 7-9th is the confirmed dates for the NECHE visit. There will be a Board of Trustees session with the team and will have more on that as the details become available. You should have received the new draft of the Self Study in your packet.
- The ACEN Accreditation team for nursing visited last week.
